CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2021

REVIEW

“A hint of baked plums to the cherries. Some cinnamon and baking spices, too. Juicy and crunchy on the medium-bodied palate with firm, lightly chewy tannins and a fruity, medium-length finish. Drink now.” J. Suckling.

MALBEC 2021

REVIEW

“An attractive malbec with mulberries, black cherries and a floral and balsamic edge. Pretty flavorful on the palate with a medium body that unleashes fleshy, juicy fruit packed with sleek tannins. Drink now.” J. Suckling.

RED BLEND 2021

REVIEW

“A well-balanced blend of cabernet and malbec with plenty of berries and strawberries, walnuts and some sweet spices. A medium-bodied palate swathed with bright berries and spices with tight and caressing tannins driving it to a lengthy, spicy finish. Well-judged oak actually helps prolong the finish, but nothing is in excess. Drink now.” J. Suckling.
